

Crime and punishment 🦴💣👮🕵️

https://www.youtube.com/live/OZwx2\_IW578?si=ki0g46f3uA7nKcmY

<https://youtu.be/gplH-yaAHcQ?si=9jWWxxXdL8a7RzJP>

<https://youtu.be/AsoldrsX0Ig?si=HJ5X-seCUMIXR2U8>

<https://youtu.be/7XYA3gzD5LU?si=jyM46M0yzv8QtoQw>

1. Get away with it: To avoid being punished for a crime.

Sentence: He thought he could get away with stealing the car, but the police caught him.

2. On the run: To be fleeing from the police or authorities.

Sentence: The bank robber is still on the run, and the police are looking for him.

3. A crime of passion: A crime committed in a moment of intense emotion, usually anger, jealousy, or love.

Sentence: The murder was ruled a crime of passion, as the victim had been having an affair with the killer's wife.

4. A clean slate: A fresh start, without any criminal record.

Sentence: After serving his time, he hoped to get a clean slate and start a new life.

5. A stitch in time saves nine: Addressing a problem early on can prevent bigger problems later.

Sentence: If the police had investigated the suspect's background sooner, it might have prevented the crime.

6. Behind bars: Imprisoned.

Sentence: The burglar was put behind bars for five years.

7. Turn a blind eye: To ignore something wrong or illegal.

Sentence: The manager turned a blind eye to the employees stealing supplies.

8. Under the radar: To avoid detection or attention.

Sentence: The drug cartel was operating under the radar for years before the police discovered them.

9. To break the law: To commit a crime.

Sentence: They broke the law by speeding and driving drunk.

10. To take the law into one's own hands: To act as judge, jury, and executioner, often without due process.

Sentence: The vigilante took the law into his own hands and punished the criminal himself.

11. To be caught red-handed: To be caught in the act of committing a crime.

Sentence: The thief was caught red-handed trying to steal the jewels.

12. To pay the price: To suffer the consequences of one's actions, often for committing a crime.

Sentence: He paid the price for his crimes by spending ten years in prison.

13. A crime against humanity: A crime that is committed against a large number of people, often with the intent to cause widespread suffering or death.

Sentence: The war crimes committed in the country were considered a crime against humanity.

14. A slap on the wrist: A very light punishment for a crime.

Sentence: The judge gave the offender a slap on the wrist and released him on probation.

15. A slippery slope: A series of actions that lead to increasingly severe consequences, often ending in a crime.

Sentence: Lying about one's age on a job application is a slippery slope that can lead to more serious offenses later.

Extra learning:

Types of crime

Genocide

Suicide

Homicide

Is your country a safe country?

What do you think is the worst common crime in your country?

Tell me about a time you broke a rule.

To answer the question:

Direct answering - explaining - example -concluding.

What is the best way for police to keep neighborhoods safe?

What do you think makes people commit acts of violent crime?

Do you think that video games encourage young people to commit crimes?

Talking about victims of crime?

My house was burgled while I was gone.

Burgle verb

Burglar (noun person)

Burglary (noun activity)

Murder (verb)

Murderer (person)

Murder (activity)

Steal (verb)

Thief (person)

Stealing(noun activity)

There have several break-ins in the areas recently.

They came and dusted for prints.

Stolen goods tend to be moved out of the city and sold somewhere else.

There's a whole network of fences around the country.

Talking about street crime

My colleague was mugged near here last week.

I didn't think there was much street crime here.

She was robbed at knifepoint.

There's a lot of pickpocketing on public transport.

Talking about traffic offenses

He was done for DUI. He was convicted/arrested for DUI.

In this context, DUI stands for Driving Under the Influence. It refers to the crime of operating a motor vehicle while impaired by alcohol or other drugs<sup>1</sup>. So, when someone is "convicted/arrested for DUI," it means they were caught and legally charged for driving while intoxicated.

He got a 12-month driving ban.

He has to do some community service.

He already had some points on his license.

Are traffic laws strict in your country?

Give me examples

Is community service used as punishment in your country? If so, for what kind of crimes?

Does your country have a points system for traffic laws? What would someone have to do to get a driving ban?

Going to court

Not be punished(informal)=get off

A kind of court (in the UK) serious crime

Magistrate's court

A slap on the wrist = A very light punishment

Which deals with less

Type of steals

What's hold up?

Breaking up a bank and a person have a gun. He shout "Hold up"!

Car jack A car jack is when a criminal takes your car while you're driving.

Blow = shoot gun

I'm going to blow you away.

Not, I don't have a rap career. I'm never going.

Mug- A mug is a big cup with hot beverages.

If we use mug in the criminal sense, It's different to be mugged.

I was just mugged = I was robbed.

Does : make mistake

Does a wrong work

He does task.

Polices did well

Froid be believes

Honking

You punished someone

Self-defense

Death

Freedom of speech

Death penalty

Capital punishment

If one has no crime- not have a crime

Economies

abortion

In jailed- jail